Red Riding Hood – Panto 2014

The first reading of this year's Panto will take place straight after the AGM on the 12th September 2013, if you or anyone you know is interested in getting involved this year, including on the Production team then please come along - start time approx 7.45pm.

The auditions for Red Riding Hood will take place on Monday 23rd and Wednesday 25th September 2013 at 7.45pm, please come prepared to read a part on the stage on the evening. (Please attend the reading on the 18th September so that you can choose which parts you would like to audition for).

Both reading and Auditions will take place at the Lecture Hall.

Tickets will be on sale during November, but this year we have changed the performance dates, we have replaced our usual first Thursday performance with a Sunday matinee during the first weekend of the Panto run, this decision has been made based on our historic ticket sales on the first Thursday, which we normally only fill to 50% capacity and the excellent turn out for the extra Sunday matinee that we ran last year.
